DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, lines 3 and 4, "said apparatus" has no antecedent basis in the claims. In claim 2, lines 3-4, the clause "b" is unclear, especially the "means for positioning the frame relative to the surface" which has no antecedent basis in the claims and the term "mans".

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Lentz.
See especially Figures 1 and 8.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3644

6. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Smith in view of Lentz.

Smith discloses a device for storing a firearm, including means for mounting, an insert means for securing and locking the open end of the barrel, and means to enclose and secure the trigger and action of the firearm. Smith fails to specify that a clip receiving portion of the firearm is enclosed and secured. Lentz teaches that it is known to secure the clip receiving portion of a firearm. See especially elements 8 and 55 in Figures 1 and 8. Therefore, it is considered to have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to have the enclosing and securing means of Smith cover the clip receiving means of a firearm. Motivation to combine is the increased security and protection of the firearm by enclosing this portion of the action of a firearm. To employ the teaching of Lentz on the device of Smith and enclose the clip of a firearm is considered to have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art.

7. Claims 12-14 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Shaw and Zebedies are cited as being of interest since they disclose firearm locking devices.
